● INTIMATE

Intimate wedding

A deeply personal celebration for those who believe that less truly is more. With up to 50 guests, every detail is thoughtfully curated, from candlelit ceremony spaces to bespoke table settings, ensuring the focus stays where it belongs: on you and the people who matter most.

● EXTRAVAGANT

Extravagant wedding

For the couple who wants to celebrate in full grandeur. With capacity for 20-150 guests, the château's outdoor garden is perfect for dream weddings featuring floral installations, live entertainment, and a private chef for a memorable menu, ensuring an unforgettable event.

● INDOOR

Indoor wedding

Step into the timeless elegance of the château's interiors, vaulted ceilings, period architecture, and grand ballroom spaces that set a dramatic, refined tone. A weather-proof sanctuary ideal for cooler seasons, evening receptions, or couples drawn to classic, candle-warmed splendour.

● OUTDOOR

Outdoor wedding

The château's grounds offer a world of their own. Wander from the serenity of the Japanese garden to the romance of wisteria-draped walkways, celebrate poolside under the open sky, or gather in the extended gardens as the sun sets over the estate. Every corner of the grounds becomes part of your story.

THE CEREMONY

The moment you say "I do."

Walk down a private aisle through the formal French gardens, the château framing your every step.

Whether you choose an outdoor blessing in the parterre, an intimate ceremony in the Louis Salon, or vows exchanged beneath the sky with the wisteria in bloom, Château de Veziins offers settings so breathtaking, they need no decoration.

Every backdrop, every beam of light, every breath of the estate has been here for centuries, waiting quietly for this moment.

There are no strict curfews, no shared spaces, and no hurry. Your ceremony unfolds entirely on your terms, paced by emotion, not a schedule. Linger in the moment for as long as it deserves.

This is a place where time bends gently to your will. Where the only thing that matters is the person standing across from you, the words you've chosen, and the life you're stepping into together.

Château de Veziins simply holds the space, and makes it unforgettable.

Your celebration is booked across seven days - a full week, so there is no pressure to rush your meaningful celebration.

Pour the champagne, let your shoulders drop, and allow yourself to simply arrive, celebrate, enjoy and share in memorable moments.

The gardens are yours to wander, the wellness suite yours to sink into, the sauna, jacuzzi, and pool, all reserved exclusively for you and your bridal party.

As the afternoon drifts into evening, explore the estate at your own pace. No schedule, no urgency. Just golden light, good company, and the quiet joy of knowing the week has truly begun.

When the sun begins to fall, your rehearsal dinner awaits, candlelit and intimate in the dining room, or alfresco in the back garden, your nearest and dearest gathered along a long table as the sky turns to amber behind the château.

The first of many perfect moments.

The Wedding Day

This is the day you've been dreaming of.

From the moment you settle into the getting-ready suites, the château holds you. Every detail attended to, every space transformed, all of it built around you. When the time comes, descend the grand staircase and feel the room catch its breath.

Exchange your vows in the parterre gardens, sunlight falling softly across the moment you'll remember for the rest of your lives.

Then celebrate as only Château de Vezins allows, beneath open skies or within the gilded salons, where every surface seems lit from within. As night draws in, the music rises and the dancing begins. And here, there is no last song. Just you, the people you love, and a night that refuses to end. Every moment, entirely yours.

Farewell Brunch

Sunday mornings were made for this.

Slip into the stillness of the estate as the grounds come gently to life around you. Wander among the peacocks, pause at the koi pond, and let the morning unfold without hurry. The weekend has been everything, and there's no need to rush its ending.

Gather one last time over a leisurely brunch, where the conversation flows as freely as the coffee and the laughter lingers a little longer than it should. This is the unhurried farewell that every perfect weekend deserves.

Check-out on your own time. But the feeling of this place, the light through the gardens, the joy of these three days, that leaves with you, and stays with you, long after the gates close behind you. Until next time.

Set the scene you've always imagined.

Four hectares of private grounds mean no two receptions look alike. Seat your guests at a single long table stretching through the parterre. Arrange intimate round tables under the stars. Create a cocktail terrace by the pool. Move the dancing indoors to the gilded salons at midnight.

Our curated network of elite caterers, from celebrated local chefs to Michelin-starred talent, will tailor the menu entirely to your vision.

Château de Vezins is yours to shape entirely. We don't coordinate your wedding, we believe that privilege belongs to you. Our carefully curated network of trusted suppliers: elite caterers, celebrated local chefs, and Michelin-starred talent who understand this estate, will tailor every detail to your vision. From floristry to music, photography to front-of-house, each name on our list has been chosen with the same exacting standard as the château itself.

GETTING READY

The magic begins here.

Every corner of the chateau is picture perfect. Natural light, antique mirrors, and the hush of the countryside. Your bridesmaids are here. The champagne is chilled. The dress is hanging. Every detail you imagined, this is where it comes to life, before you've even stepped outside.

*The chateau sleeps up to 17 guests
(maximum 14 adults)
4 ensuite bedrooms suites
9 bedrooms
7 reception rooms
period antiques and décor throughout
4 hectares of private gardens
Loire Valley on your doorstep*

Additional accommodation available through our trusted local partners.

Light that needs no filter.

Within four hectares, your photographer will find a different world around every corner. The grandeur of the double-volume staircase. Hidden garden alcoves where the light falls just so. The quiet poetry of the Japanese garden. And in spring, the wisteria tunnels, a canopy of violet bloom that turns every photograph into something that barely looks real.

These are not backdrops. They are moments waiting to be found, the kind of light and natural beauty that no studio could recreate and no filter could improve. Together, they tell yours.

Your private château, entirely yours.

The Gold Suite

The crown jewel of the château. A king bedroom draped in gold, carved headboard, silk curtains, cherub sconces, and damask walls that glow in the morning light. Through the doorway, a freestanding rolltop bath awaits.

The Sapphire Suite

A four-poster draped in sapphire and gold, with garden views that fill every window. The ensuite is a suite in itself, a sculptural freestanding bath beneath a crystal chandelier, and a walk-in shower finished in slate.

The Burgundy Suite

Dramatic, romantic, and utterly unforgettable. Crimson velvet drapes frame a bed alcove lined in toile de Jouy, beneath a cascading crystal chandelier. The ensuite answers in black marble and gold. Bold, beautiful, and entirely its own world.

The Louis Salon

A room that stops you in your doorway. Flooded with natural light through arched windows, the Louis XIV Salon is dressed in sage, gold, and centuries of quiet grandeur, from the marble fireplace to the gilded mirrors that catch every glimmer of the day.

The Music Room

A baby grand piano, hand-painted walls alive with birds and botanicals, and a crystal chandelier overhead. The Music Room is where the evening finds its soul, intimate enough for a stolen moment, grand enough to fill with song.

The Grand Hall

There is one moment every bride remembers. The double-height entrance hall, the sweeping balustrade, the room falling quiet below. Descend the grand staircase and feel every eye turn, this is the entrance you have always imagined.

Every corner tells a story.

Every season writes a different tale.

Spring

Wisteria in full bloom, blossom along the allée, and soft golden light from morning to dusk. Spring weddings at Château de Vezins are floral, romantic, and utterly dreamlike.

Summer

Long, warm evenings perfect for alfresco dining. The pool terrace comes alive, gardens are lush, and the sky glows long past the first dance.

Autumn

Burnished golds and russet tones transform the estate. The intimate salons come into their own for candlelit suppers and velvet-hour photography.

Winter

A winter wedding at the château is cosy, candlelit, and quietly magical. The fireplaces roar, the chandeliers shimmer, and outside frost dusts the parterre like icing.
